CORKERS AND TWISTERS.

By Baldheaded Ike.

Frankfort 11—Louisville 1.

Then Frankfort seized the baseball bat

And gave the girls a wink.

Whilst Louisville looked up through its hat

For sure it knew how quickly that

'Twould get the dinky dink.

Bobannan squarely filled the box

And sent the scorers in

'Till Louisville lost its boots and "sox"

And left with us its pile of "rocks"

That made its wealth of "tin."

It was a cold day when Louisville got left in the baseball game at Glenwood Park. Some sly gamin had stolen their rabbit's foot and they beat the air with the stick and ran bases as if they were tired of life.

There are fifty sites for manufacturing plants in the valley between Frankfort and Thorn Hill, with a railway at their front doors and a street car line on the other side to take their operatives home. A full water supply is handy either by pipes from the reservoir line or driven wells to the gravel deposits that underlie the surface.

A well-known citizen of the West End has a great faculty for imitating the voice of others. He was once clerking in the store of Boss Lampton. The wife of a prominent and well-to-do citizen, whose voice was peculiar and nasal, one day came into the store to make purchases. The clerk was in the back room and unnoticed saw the lady enter. No one else was in the store. The clerk saw a chance for a practical joke. Imitating the voice of the lady's husband, he exclaimed in loud nasal and apparently excited tones, "Lampton, didn't I tell you not to sell my wife any more goods on credit? Can't you obey me? My! My! My wife will bring my nose to the grindstone yet." And the clerk was proceeding in the same style to lament the extravagances of the wife, when the lady, in great indignation, flitted out of the store and rushed homeward to find her husband quietly seated in a chair in his room reading a paper. Stopping short she exclaimed:

'Why! Why! But wasn't you down at Boss Lampton's store just now?'

'Hav'n't been out of the house to-day," he replied.

Then, remembering the abilities of the clerk as an imitator of the husband's voice, she divined the deception that had given her such excitement, and hastening back to the store, she seized the yard stick and gave chase to the clerk, belaboring him over the head and shoulders as he ran, laughing, to escape the chastisement.

Old Major Carneal was a singular character. He was one of the wealthiest citizens of Frankfort. His manners were odd, his style gruff, and his favors and patronage infrequent. One day his carriage was standing at the front door of the Capital Hotel. A young man, who had a vein of humor in his composition, ventured to ask the loan of the carriage.

"Take it and go to h—l," gruffly replied Carneal.

The young clerk accepted the use of the carriage so abruptly tendered, and driving around the town he filled it with a gay and frolicsome throng of young girls who took in the situation with great glee. Driving out towards Bridgeport and Hardinsville, they spent the day in gathering grapes, haws, persimmons and hickory nuts, protracting the trip till nightfall.

Meanwhile Major Carneal was storming and fretting at the absence of his carriage. His anger was at fever heat, and his abuse choleric.

As the carriage drove up to the hotel steps after nightfall, and the young clerk stepped to the ground, Major Carneal, who had been angrily waiting its return, stepped forward and with a volley of expletives, asked him why he had served him so badly.

"You told me," said the clerk, "to take the carriage and go to h—l with it," but I couldn't get any further than Hardinsville, so I brought it back.

The unexpected and humorous answer so touched Carneal that he afterwards told the incident himself, and later gave the young man a $25 diamond pin as a token of his favor.

EVER WATCHFUL.

A Little Care Will Save Many Frankfort Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health;

The discharges not excessive or infrequent;

Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

C. H. Luckett, night clerk at the Hotel Fleming, Holmes St., says: "I was troubled for some time with marked symptoms of kidney ailment, principally in connection with the kidney secretions which at times were very annoying and distressing. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and so highly recommended that it was with hopes that they might help me that I went to J. W. Gayle's drug store and got a box."

"I used them as directed and found that they benefited me in every way, so much so that I have recommended them to my friends on several occasions, and will do so whenever I can. You may refer to me at any time as having used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results, and I hope it may be the means of relieving others who may be suffering from the common complaint, kidney troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

OLD CROW RESUMES OPERATIONS.

The celebrated Old Crow Distillery, No. 106, the property of W. A. Gaines & Co., resumed operations for the season on Thursday last.

Considerable improvement has been made upon this already magnificent property.

Dr. Weaver's Treatment. Cures piles, hemorrhoids, and all anal eruptions.

PROMINENT VERSAILLES BANKER DIES.

Mr. Jas. P. Amsden, cashier of the Amsden Bank, at Versailles, died at St. Joseph's Infirmary, at Lexington, on Monday, after a short illness, with double pneumonia, coupled with appendicitis.

Mr. Amsden and his wife had gone to Fayette county to visit their daughter, Mrs. Jas. B. Haggin, at Elmendorf, when Mr. Amsden was attacked with appendicitis and was taken to the Lexington infirmary for an operation. Before this could be done, however, pneumonia set in, and, after lingering about ten days, the end came.

Mr. Amsden was a prominent financier of the Woodford capital, and he and his brother, Mr. John L. Amsden, owned the Amsden Bank. He was also President of the Louisville & Atlantic Railroad, which runs to Beattyville from Versailles. He was interested in other big affairs.

He was a genial and popular gentleman.

Besides his brother, Mr. John L. Amsden, he leaves a wife, one daughter (Mrs. W. I. Moberly), one step-daughter (Mrs. J. B. Haggin) and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his death at the very height of his usefulness as a citizen.

The remains were brought to Versailles on Thursday, the funeral services conducted from the Episcopal Church (of which he was a member) and deposited in the cemetery at that place by the side of his father and mother.

We tender our sincere sympathies.

FORTUNATE MISSOURIANS.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong to-day. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

ACCIDENT AT NEW CAPITOL.

By the falling of a scaffold at the new capitol, on Monday, three men were badly hurt, and one may not recover. The fall of the scaffold precipitated the men some fifteen feet. James Brooks (colored) had three ribs and his right leg broken, his left arm and hand badly bruised. Is in a very serious condition.

Roger Munday (colored) had his right leg badly hurt.

Frank Sexton (white) was hurt in the stomach.

Dr. C. A. Fish, the company's surgeon, attended the injured men.

Piles quickly and positively cured with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. It's made for Piles alone—and it does the work surely and with satisfaction. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large, Nickel Capped glass jars, 50 cents. Sold and recommended by all dealers.

JUDGMENT FOR $10,000 AFFIRMED.

In the case of Ueltschi's Executors v. L. & N. and C. & O. R. R. Companies, the judgment of the circuit court awarding $10,000 damages for the killing of Mr. Robert Ueltschi, was affirmed by the Court of Appeals, on Tuesday, Judge Lassing writing the opinion.

Preventics, as the name implies, prevent all Colds and Grippe when "taken at the sneeze stage." Preventics are toothsome candy tablets. Preventics dissipate all colds quickly, and taken early, when you first feel that a cold is coming, they check and prevent them. Preventics are thoroughly safe for children, and as effectual for adults. Sold and recommended in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes by all dealers.

DISASTER TO FORMER FRANKFORT PEOPLE.

By a dispatch from Richmond we regret to learn that the residence of Mr. Wm. H. Grider, at College Hill, Madison county, was burned on Sunday night last, involving a loss of $2,500, with only $1,500 insurance.

Mrs. Grider was formerly Miss Lucy Sayres, of this city. Her mother, Mrs. Sam C. Sayres, resides with her and two handsome portraits of Col. Thos. A. Theobald and wife, valued at over $1,000, were destroyed.

The family were all away from home at the time.

SECOND CONVICTION.

Daniel Adams, the second attendant at the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, at Lexington, to be tried for the murder of Fred Ketterer, of Ashland, was convicted by the jury, on Sunday at noon (the case having been submitted to them Saturday night), and (what a travesty on justice) sent to jail for one year, the jury making the case assault and battery.

If the man was guilty at all, he ought to have been hung. The next thing it will be cold-blooded murder defined as justifiable suicide.

Frankfort is noted for its beautiful women with their clear complexions and rosy cheeks. This is because they all use Father William's Indian Tea or Herb Tablets. They are deservedly popular. Only 20c a box. They are sold under a guarantee by Frankfort Drug Co., Druggists.

WINTER CARS ON AGAIN.

On Thursday last the Traction Co put the five winter cars back in commission on the city line of street cars. The cars have been repaired and put in good condition for their winter's work.

We are gratified at this action of the company, and congratulate Manager J. D. Sallee upon having his action in urging the return of the cars complied with.

A NEW ASSOCIATE.

The above is a poor picture of our young friend, Mr. Woodford W. Longmoor, of this city, who has lately associated himself with Col. R. C. Crenshaw, of Christian county, who is a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, before the Democratic primary.

Mr. Crenshaw is the present Deputy Commissioner under Mr. Vreeland.

Mr. Longmoor has been a resident of this city ever since his honored father came here as Clerk of the Court of Appeals. He has further identified himself with our people in his marriage to one of Frankfort's prettiest and sweetest girls.

Mr. Longmoor is a clever and popular young fellow and is one of the "pencil pushing" fraternity, and he ought to be pushed along by the newspaper boys.

PRISONER ESCAPES—GUARD ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

While at work on the sidewalk, on the north side of the Penitentiary, on Saturday, Charles Hood, a highway robber, sent up from Marion county, made his escape from the guard, and has thus far eluded pursuit.

While looking under a pile of lumber in the Prison lumberyard, Mr. Magee, a guard, from Lincoln county, let his pistol fall from the holster, which exploded, the ball entering the left arm at the wrist and plowed its way through the fleshy part of the arm nearly to the elbow and out. Surgical attention was rendered and Mr. Magee went to his home at Crab Orchard to await the healing of the wound.

Later—Hood was captured on Monday by Mr. J. W. True, living near Switzer, and returned to the prison. He was glad to get back, as he was nearly frozen.

GOOD MEETING CLOSED.

Rev. John H. Burdin, the pastor of Buck Run Baptist Church, at the Forks of Elkhorn, closed a protracted meeting of two weeks' duration, on Sunday night. Services were held twice a day (a very unusual thing at this busy season of the year with the farmers) and they were well attended. There were 19 additions to the church—12 by experience and baptism, and 7 by letter.

Rev. Samuel Wilson, of Shelbyville, assisted Pastor Burdin in these services. This beloved old church, which had been in bad shape and on a decline for several years, has taken on new life since Mr. Burdin took charge of it, and the membership has been greatly stirred and strengthened, as shown by the reports made to the last Association. Now comes this old-fashioned revival that has done so much good in the community and cheered the hearts of those who stood faithful in its darkest hours.

The solemn and searching preaching of Mr. Wilson was greatly blessed by the Spirit of God, at which all Christians rejoice.

HOT ASHES NUISANCE—DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

Several times lately disastrous fires have been narrowly averted, which were occasioned by the unlawful and dangerous practice of carrying hot ashes to the rear of residences and placing them in barrels or boxes close to buildings. As an instance the stable

Thirty

Days Was My Life's Limit.

Agency From Inherited Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me.

One person in every four has a weak heart. Unless promptly treated a weak heart will easily become a diseased heart. A little extra strain from any cause is sufficient to bring on this deadly malady, the most common cause of sudden death. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will tone up the heart's action, enrich the blood and improve the circulation.

"My trouble began with catarrh and I have always supposed it caused the trouble I have experienced with my heart. I had the usual symptoms of sleeplessness, lost appetite, constipation, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and pain around the heart and under left arm. My mother suffered in the same way and I suppose mine was an inherited tendency. At one time I was in agony. I suffered so severely and became so weak that my doctors said I could not live five days. At this time I had not slept over two hours a night on account of nervousness. The best exercise such as walking about, would bring on palpitation and fluttering of the heart so severe that I would have to give up everything and rest. Nerve and Liver Pills cured me of constipation and heart symptoms disappeared under the influence of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. I am in better health than I have been in twelve years and I thank Dr. Miles' Remedies for it. I think they are the grandest remedies on earth and I am constantly recommending them to my friends."—MRS. L. J. CANTRELL, Waxahatchie, Tex.

of Mr. Chas. W. Saffell was burned, on Monday last, and, but for the fact that the department was prompt in responding to the alarm and that it was in the day time, a destructive fire would have resulted. The same day a pile of hot ashes set fire to the discarded body of a pony cart at a nearby residence in the same neighborhood.

Great care should be exercised in this matter. Some of the most disastrous fires that ever afflicted this city came from the above cause. We call to mind that of November, 1871, when 35 houses were burned. It started from an ash barrel in the rear of a residence on St. Clair, and burned through to Ann street, the Christian Church being one of the buildings burned.

HAS STILL BETTER PLACE.

In our Saturday's issue we stated that our young friend, Mr. Fred L. Grinstead, had been transferred from Portsmouth, Ohio, to Cincinnati, as an agent of the Adams Express Co.

By a dispatch from Lexington and the Lexington papers, we learn that Mr. Grinstead has been appointed agent at Lexington to succeed Mr. Geo. K. Bell, who has been retired on a pension on account of ill health.

We have two Frankfort boys in the Lexington office now—Fred L. Grinstead and C. Gran Graham.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO KEEP FROM WORK.

A prisoner in the Penitentiary, sent up from Covington, for burglary, in the shoe factory, on one plea and another (he was wounded in the arm when captured), and Saturday he was put in a place where he was compelled to do something. He deliberately cut off two fingers from his hand and thus disabled himself.

PROTRACTED MEETING AT BETHEL.

Rev. John H. Burdin, the pastor, commenced a protracted meeting at Bethel Baptist Church near Peak's Mill, on Monday night. It is expected that the meeting will continue two weeks.

It is earnestly hoped that great good will be accomplished "In His Name."

UNDERGROUND WATERS OF WESTERN KENTUCKY.

A valuable and interesting discussion of the underground water resources of Kentucky, west of Tennessee river, is contained in Water-Supply and Irrigation Paper No. 164, just issued by the United States Geological Survey. The investigations made by the hydrographic branch of the geological survey show that in Western Kentucky the underground water resources are largely dependent on the local rainfall. The springs and shallow wells derive their supplies exclusively from the rain falling in their immediate vicinity, while the rocks from which the deep wells obtain waters are supplied by the rain that falls within the State or in the area just west of Mississippi river. In only a few cases do deep wells pierce the hard rocks that lie beneath the soft sands and clays. In Water-Supply Paper No. 164, which may be obtained on application to the directors of the United States Geological Survey at Washington, D. C., are discussed the general conditions that govern the occurrence of water in wells and the relation of the geology of the region to the supply of underground water. These general discussions are followed by detailed descriptions that show the water conditions in each county, the depth at which water may be obtained, and the heights to which it rises without pumping.

DEATHS FROM APPENDICITIS.

MONDAY'S FIRE.

A telephone alarm called the fire boys to the residence of Mr. Chas. W. Saffell, on Second street, on Monday morning, where hot ashes had set fire to the stable.

Owing to the high wind prevailing the firemen had hard work to extinguish the blaze. Several other small outbuildings were consumed. The loss was about $300. The department did fine work, otherwise there would have been a disastrous fire.

Deputy Collector Grant L. Roberts collected internal revenue taxes for the month of October as follows: 3,210 barrels; 159,183 5-10 tax gallons; amount of tax, $175,046.85. This breaks the record of this office. Never before, in all the years that revenue taxes have been collected has so large a sum been collected in one month.

Consumption

There is no specific for consumption. Fresh air, exercise, nourishing food and Scott's Emulsion will come pretty near curing it, if there is anything to build on. Millions of people throughout the world are living and in good health on one lung.

From time immemorial the doctors prescribed cod liver oil for consumption. Of course the patient could not take it in its oil form, hence it did very little good. They can take and tolerate it for a long time. There is no oil, not excepting butter, so easily digested and absorbed by the system as cod liver oil in the form of Scott's Emulsion, and that is the reason it is so helpful in consumption where its use must be continuous.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

M. A. SELBERT,

Reliable Jeweler, 230 St. Clair Street.
IF YOU BUY IT AT SELBERT'S ITS GOOD

[For the Roundabout.] ACROSS FENCES - AROUND CORNERS.

"Why, hello, Uncle Ephriham," I said it with gladness, as we met hands right in the midst of a crowd congregated on Main street, during county court day last week. "Still lookin' peeked, madam, an' the old woman told me to bring yer home with me. That's if yer kin ride in a wagon." "I should think I could with the greatest delight, and the invitation is accepted with many thanks! I'll wait at Dr. Avorill's Drug Store."

My friend was not long tarrying, and we had started out on our homeward way when he remembered that he had forgotten the rolls and some hanks of yarn. We turned around and purchased these articles without much worry. I bought pop corn which I never eat, peanuts which I abhor; and, chewing gum which I gave to my neighbor, who proceeded to chew it as if his life depended upon the action, and I, feeling as if life was worth while, calmly surveyed from my seat of honor beside the driver, the white turnpike with its hurry, bustling (?), street car line and the up hill interurban, working teams.

We drove "Hon. Thomas," the best-natured animal I ever saw, and while I laughed and chattered, my friend listened with silent respect, and an occasional suggestion, for instance, when an automobile passed us gliding along in the mysterious fashion of ghostly visitants. He said:

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, and is really pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its makeup. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking. If you suffer from periodical headache, neuritis, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weak ing, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

"If that thar machine had been seen by my grandparents they had thought the world's end had come. I feel a heap safer sitting up here behind Thomas than if I had one of the monsters a reelin' down ther pike. Hows terbacca yer say? Oh, we hev hed extra luck a curin hit. John come over with his scientific larnin' and put ther whole business in case whilet we wuz a studying how ter do hit. He says our lot uv terbacca will handle fine by Monday, an' hits already bin sole ter a man in Louisville."

"Ther honey crop turned out splendid. We sole 20 stands of old bees an' hev about that many new ones."

"Yes, them trees do look beautiful. That one is a gum, an' over thar a maple. October, mother says, brings back ter her lots of memories. Her birthday, and marriage day anniversaries come in this month. By ther way, what do yer think she says: She is boun ter go with yer ter Kissinger, and John's goin' ter drive in ther high trap so yer can see ther country behin' an' befo'."

Uncle Eph chuckled visibly. "I like that idea," I responded. "I am always on the look out for anything interesting, and I am sure the high trap will bring to all of us a very happy day."

As we ascended the hill by "Silver Lake" a party of fishermen met us, among them the two grandsons of Uncle Eph. We stopped to exchange greetings, and were the surprised recipients of a string of "speckled beauties." "Tell grandma," said Julian, "to fry them like she loves them and Mrs. Warner will enjoy eating breakfast. Mother expects you to come to us for a visit, Auntie Warner," said the younger boy. "Father will go to-morrow with you and grandma. Goodby till we see you again," and away they raced on their shetland ponies light-hearted, courteous, country boys, whose message of gracious hospitality brought a sweet consolation to my lonely life.

We stopped at the blacksmith shop to settle a bill, and I ran across the pike to drink from the wayside well. The water was so refreshing that I carried a dipper full to my friend, and was amply repaid by his look of appreciation. We met four loads of hay. In one wagon, sitting way up sky high, was an old friend of my girlhood. What did he do but stop that team, scramble down from his lofty perch and shake hands as he used to do in the lost days of happiness. It did both of us a world of good to meet after a century of unrest and sorrow, and his crop of hair was just as red, and his eyes as blue as when in the winter of our discontent we said goodby.

"I wouldn't take a fast horse for this pleasure of meeting you, Nell. Its good to look into your face again. Come to see us, won't you? There is my wife and the three little ones, and you shall be one of the household. Bring her up, Uncle Eph." And I was actually mopping my face and wiping away tears before I realized that "we had met as ships that pass in the night and speak to each other in passing," and I had found one kindly pleasant thought blossoming through time and absence as beautiful as when first planted in the garden of my heart.

Uncle Eph respected my emotion. He chattered of wayside tales of his old memories and it was well on toward sunset before he halted at the barn lot gate and I scrambled out to run right into the arms of dear old grandma in her blue-checked apron, white cap and black gown. She kissed my cheek and muttered some benediction and leaving grandpa to do his feeding we went into the house.

BENSON.

Benson is surely improving and growing. Mr. J. J. Hulet is having a new coal house built, Mr. Bob Hulet is building a barn and Mr. Sam Hulet is adding to his house.

Mr. Preston Wado's little daughter, Elizabeth, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is rapidly recovering.

Born—in this county, to Mr. George Mitchell and wife, a daughter—weight 9 pounds.

Mr. Frank Edge, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Sam Lacey, has returned home.

Mr. Earl Bodkin, of Frankfort, was the guest of his brother, Mr. Will Bodkin, Sunday.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak Kidney Restoratives. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is cloudy, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative monthly Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

TEARS UP INTERURBAN TRACK.

On Saturday night last a crew of employees of the L. & N. Railroad tore up the rails of the Louisville and Eastern Interurban Line at Beard's Station and placed a lot of obstructions on the track.

It is said the L. & N. claim that they own the ground over which the Interurban Road had laid its track.

What will be the next step on the program is looked for with considerable interest.

Vital Questions

What does the Doctor Prescribe?
What does the Druggist Supply?

Health often balances between these two questions. Life itself may depend on the precise filling of a prescription with drugs of absolute standard strength. Many druggists who fill prescriptions carefully are not careful about the reliability or potency of the remedies used. We are careful about both. We see to it that all our drugs have the precise strength they should have, and they are always compounded with scientific accuracy.

DENNIS-TOPASS—In Georgetown, on Thursday, Mr. Ora Dennis and Miss Birdie Topass, both of this county, were married by Rev. J. L. Neal, of the Presbyterian Church.

JOHNSON-PERHAM—In this county, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Geo. Jones, near Jetts, on Wednesday, Mr. Flournoy Johnson and Mrs. Sallie Perham were married. The young couple are very popular. They will be at home at the Frankfort Hotel after Nov. 10th.

YATES-MANFORD—At the residence of Mr. C. T. Duval, at Stamping Ground, Mr. George Yates, of Oklahoma, and Miss Anna Manford, were married on Tuesday.

Mr. Yates is a prominent young business man of the new State. His bride is a fine young woman, formerly bookkeeper for Messrs. Crutcher & Simpson, in this city.

MILES-JONES—Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Mr. Norman Miles and Miss Ada Cole Jones, of Kenova, West Virginia.

Mr. Miles is the oldest son of Mr. Jas. N. Miles, of this city, and is a fine young fellow. His bride to be is a charming and popular young lady. The wedding is to occur Wednesday, December 5.

LAWSON-REAGAN—In Covington, Monday, Mr. Eli Lawson, of Newport, and Miss Nellie Reagan, of this city, were married by Rev. Vicar General Brossart, of the Catholic Church.

Mr. Lawson was a formerly valued employe of the Frankfort Shoe Co., and while here wooed and won his bride. Miss Reagan was with Mr. W. Arthur Howard, and was a handsome, popular and lovable girl.

THANKS.

We have been placed under obligations to our friend, Mr. Dan L. Kennedy, of the Arcade, for a fine bottle of superior Port Wine, which he enjoins shall only be used in sickness. Mr. Kennedy is a big-hearted, clever fellow, who has more friends than anybody in Frankfort.

It can safely be said that if all saloons were conducted as our friend does his there would be far less complaint. He allows no disorder in his house.

We return to him our sincere thanks for his courtesy.

A MOUNTAIN OF GOLD

Could not bring as much happiness to Mrs. Lucia Wilke, of Caroline, Wis., as did one 25c box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, when it completely cured a running sore on her leg, which had tortured her 28 long years. Greatest anti-septic healer of Piles, Wounds, and Sores. 25c at all druggists.

BIRTHS.

SMITH—In this city, on Tuesday, to Mr. Frank R. Smith and wife, a daughter—Flora.

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT.

A colored man by the name of Bud Thomas was arrested by Officer Reagan, on Wednesday, and judged in jail, charged with burglariously entering the house of Mr. John A. Kleber, on Taylor avenue, and taking a valuable diamond ring, a solid gold ring and other jewelry.

The arrest was due to the vigilance of Mr. John Miles Emmitt, the postman, who saw the man maneuvering to enter the house, when on his rounds as postman, and was attracted to it by the peculiar way in which the man acted. Afterwards, when the burglary was known, the man came to the postoffice and Mr. Emmitt, seeing him, quickly notified the officer, and the arrest followed.

The ring and other jewelry was then traced through several hands before being finally recovered. But for Mr. Emmitt's thoughtfulness the thief would have made good.

POSTMASTER ROBBED.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, Weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At all druggists. 50 cents.

ANOTHER ASH BARREL FIRE.

About 8:20 o'clock, on Wednesday afternoon, a blaze was started in an ash barrel in the rear of the jail, which soon communicated to the high plank fence and was going at a merry gait when discovered. Had it occurred at night a very serious fire would have resulted, in all probability, as the lively stable of Mr. C. C. Hazlerigg is just across the alley and very combustible matter is contained in it.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills
The famous little pills.

UP AGAINST THE LAW.

The students of State College (not, however, the bulk of them) were glad to say) committed very serious outrages on Wednesday night, in celebrating Halloween. Several policemen were badly beaten up and street cars were damaged.

Very properly arrests were made of some of the young men, and efforts made to find out others who were in the riot.

We believe in the young having all the fun they can, for life's burdens will soon enough come, but they must not be allowed to injure others in that fun.

.. DEATHS ..

ARNOLD—In this city, on Sunday morning, Mrs. Mary Todd Arnold, wife of Mr. Philip D. Arnold, aged 35 years, after a long illness.

Mrs. Arnold was a beautiful and accomplished woman. For several years she had suffered, several operations failing to bring the relief sought. She was a devout member of the Southern Presbyterian Church, and the funeral services were conducted from that church, on Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. Wm. Crowe, her pastor.

She leaves, besides her husband and two small children, her mother and three brothers to mourn her untimely death.

The interment was in our cemetery on the hill.

BOWEN—At his home, near the Forks of Elkhorn, on Tuesday, Mr. John H. Bowen, aged 65 years.

Mr. Bowen was the oldest son of Hon. D. M. Bowen, who, at one time, was the Representative from this county in the Legislature.

Mr. Bowen was a quiet, retiring and unostentatious gentleman, a farmer and stock raiser by profession.

While his health had been poor for several years, it was not thought that his death would occur so soon.

In young manhood he wedded Miss Spicie Belle South, daughter of Hon. Jere W. South, and she and their grown daughter survive him.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, at the residence, and the remains were laid away in our cemetery.

"HOOGLIGAN'S TROUBLES."

Will be the attraction at Capital Theatre next Friday Night.

From the Mobile Register of Wednesday is clipped the following concerning "Hooligan's Troubles," which comes to Capitol Theatre Friday, Nov. 9.

"One of the largest audiences of the season greeted 'Happy Hooligan's Troubles' at the Mobile Theatre last night, the initial performance of a two night's engagement. The show is what might be termed a melange of merit. The vehicle was built to provoke laughter, and from the liberal applause it can be said that all were pleased with 'Happy Hooligan' and his company. Frank Minor, a clever comedian, took the title role, and he was one of the best, both in point of acting and make-up, ever seen in a popular priced show. The songs of 'Happy Hooligan' during the play were special features. In the third and last act, Mr. Minor favored the audience with a parody on 'In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree.' He responded to a hearty encore by playing an ocarina solo, with orchestra accompaniment. This captured the house and three times he responded on that instrument."

Seat Sale opens at Barrett's Wednesday morning—Prices 50c, 35c and 25c, and 50c.

Health not so good. Several on sick list. Among the number are the following: Mr. Wilson Moore, who has been ill for many months, is yet very ill.

The infant son of Mr. Estili Perkins, who was stricken with bronchitis, has recovered.

Mrs. W. B. Moore, who suffered a stroke of paralysis on the 29th of September, and came very near dying, has recovered so as to be able to sit up.

Among the visitors are the following:

Mr. Thomas Hutch and wife were the guests of Mr. Wilson Moore and family Saturday, and also of Mr. W. B. Moore and family Sunday.

Mr. Stephen Moore, of Louisville, has been the guest of relatives here for several days.

Mr. Victor Gordon and family, of Shelbyville, were the guests of friends and relatives here this week.

Mr. Marquis Barden has purchased what is known as the Graves farm, in this community. Price private.

Look out for the wedding. If Ira's buggy holds up, the event is close at hand.

THE BEST CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR A LITTLE MONEY.

When your Christmas present is a year's subscription to The Youth's Companion you give as much in good reading as would fill twenty 400-page novels or books of history or travel or biography ordinarily costing $1.50 a volume. Nor do you give quantity at the cost of quality. For more than half a century the wisest, most renowned, most entertaining of writers have been contributors to The Companion. You need never fear that The Companion will be inappropriate or unwelcome. The boy, the girl—every other member of the family—will insist upon a share in it. There is no other present costing so little that goes so far.

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscriber The Companion's Four-Leaf Hanging Calendar for 1907, lithographed in twelve colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the fifty-two issues of the year's volume. Full illustrated Announcement of The Companion for 1907 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free.

Subscribers who get new subscriptions will receive $16,290 in cash and many other special awards. Send for information. THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 14 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.

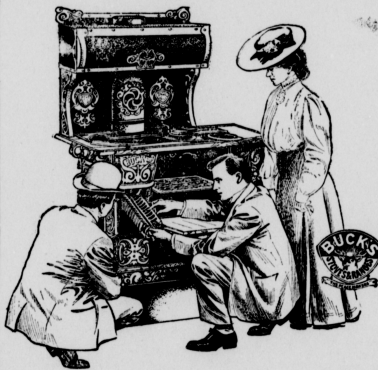

Those awful pangs of Indigestion and Dyspepsia, attended by Sour Stomach and Headache, are quickly dispelled and will not return if you use Father William's Indian Tea or Herb Tablets.
